Green Anhui Environmental Development Center

Green Anhui was established in 2003, as a non-profit civil society organization with a focus on water environment protection, environment law and policy, and public participation. It carries out its work with a staff of ~10 environmental experts and a core group of 100 volunteers. Green Anhui is also affiliated with and supports 52 student environmental organizations throughout the province. As a member of the project steering committee, Green Anhui will support the Project through its involvement in the project steering committee and its participation in the formulation and implementation of the public awareness plan. The Project Management Office (PMO) situated in the BGF, will coordinate.

The content in the Chinese proposal

民间保护组织：可能的情况下，本项目将邀请数个民间保护组织如动植物保护协会、大学、非政府组织（NGOs）等参与宣传教育，为相关团体和机构提供了实践基地。

NGO: If possible, we might invite NGOs, such as wildlife protection associations, university organizations, or other NGOs to participate in public education.

2013: Network RFP bridged the CSO and government agency to discuss the proposal.

2014-2015: The CSO was invited to be part of project steering committee.
